LEE AND LI, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW AND THE EMBEZZLEMENT OF NT $3 BILLION BY EDDIE LIU

Dr. C.V. Chen received news that one of Lee and Li's senior assistants had found a loophole in a power of attorney from one of the firm's clients, SanDisk Corporation (SanDisk), that had allowed him to illegally sell the client's shares in a Taiwanese company and to sneak out of Taiwan with over NT $3 billion. Unfortunately, Lee and Li had no insurance to cover this embezzlement. Chen knew that the three senior partners needed to develop a plan of action to save the law firm, take care of the lawyers and other employees, maintain the reputation of the firm within Taiwan and abroad intact, do what was best for SanDisk and Lee and Li, and keep the more than 12,000 clients from deserting the firm.

Glenn Rowe served in the Canadian Navy for 22 years. In his final year, he was the divisional commander of a multi-ship division. While still in the navy, he completed his Master of Business Administration degree at Memorial University of Newfoundland (1983-1986). In 1990, Professor Rowe retired from the navy and entered academia as a full time lecturer in the Faculty of Business Administration at Memorial. In 1992 he commenced doctoral studies in leadership within the context of strategic management and completed his PhD in May, 1996 at Texas A&M University. He rejoined the Faculty of Business Administration at Memorial in September 1995 where he taught strategic management and strategic leadership. In addition, he taught strategic leadership at Royal Roads University, Victoria, BC as an invited Professor from 1998 to 2000. He joined the Ivey Business School as a faculty member on July 1, 2001. He was appointed the inaugural holder of the Paul MacPherson Chair in Strategic Leadership in July 2002. He was the Director of Ivey's Executive MBA Program from July 2009 to June 2012. He teaches Designing and Executing Strategy to MBAs, and a Corporate Strategy elective to MBAs and students in Ivey's Master of Science in Management program. He has taught on IPADE's International Week since 2009.
